Mr. William Harding Jackson
2430 E Street, N.W.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Bill:

Were it not that I've had a good bit to do with the organization of the [redacted] to be held in [redacted] October 27th and 28th, and that I have to appear on the program on the 28th, I would have left for Washington immediately on receipt of your wire.

My present plans are to leave [redacted] Monday morning, October 30th, arriving Washington at 11:30 that night. I shall go direct to the Statler Hotel and call you at your office Tuesday morning, October 31st.

Many thanks.

Sincerely,
